Affordable Closets Plus “Closet with Class” to Benefit Doylestown Hospital

Luxurious, all-white custom closet will be unveiled at Bucks County Designer Showhouse

Frenchtown, NJ – April 18, 2011 – For the third straight year, Affordable Closets Plus, with offices in Frenchtown, NJ, and Bangor, PA, will participate in the Bucks County Designer House & Gardens (BCDH). Held from May 1 – 29 at Old Glory Farm at 3719 Spring Hill Road in Doylestown, PA, this year’s popular fundraising event will benefit Doylestown Hospital’s Birthing Center.

Sponsored by the Village Improvement Association (VIA) of Doylestown each spring, the BCDH features a magnificent home completely redecorated by some of the top interior designers and landscape architects in the tri-state area -- and then opened to the public for tours. The Old Glory Farm is a spectacular 1790s Bucks County fieldstone manor home with seven fireplaces, two master suites, beautiful gardens, a meandering stream and ponds. This year, the professional designers who will transform the inside of the house, as well as the teams of outdoor designers who will enhance the gardens, terraces, barn, stream bridge and waterfalls, will integrate items from Restore Habit for Humanity <http://www.habitatbucks.org/restore.htm>. Tour tickets range from $20-$25 and are available at several area stores and by visiting <http://www.buckscountydesignerhouse.org/>.

“We are excited to be designing Space #19, which will be a walk-in closet/dressing room we named ‘A Closet with Class,’” explains Angel Martin, co-owner of Affordable Closets Plus, which has served clients throughout the tri-state area since 1993. “This walk-in closet is classy and provides luxury dressed in white. We sought to create the mood of the day, since this is the room where we prepare ourselves to meet the world.”

According to Martin, “A bright and masterfully organized walk-in closet provides a place for everything we need for clothes, shoes, personal treasures and shopping triumphs. Nothing beats the sense of peace and control that comes from having a beautifully organized closet that is one of the most frequently used spaces in the home.”
